A fully executed Exhibition Contract must be submitted along with the Exhibitor's Application in advance of attending and exhibiting at any NCBA conference. Contract shall become a binding contract and is subject to the terms and regulations set forth by NCBA. NCBA Shall assign booth space to the Exhibitor based on their NCBA contribution level and then in the order the application and payment are received. Every effort will be made to respect the Exhibitor's booth preferences whenever possible, but NCBA's decision will be final. NCBA, at its sole discretion reserves the right to make changes in booth assignments that it deems are in the overall best interest of the exhibit program. NCBA reserves the right to withdraw its acceptance of this Application/Contract if it determines, in its sole discretion, that the Exhibitor is not eligible to participate or the Exhibitor's product or services are not eligible to be displayed in this exhibit.

The Exhibitor shall indemnify, defend, and protect NCBA and the Exhibit Building and save NCBA and the Exhibit Building harmless from any and all claims, demands, suits, liability, damages, loss, costs, attorneys' fees and expenses of any kind which might result from or arise out of any action or failure to act on the part of the Exhibitor or its officers, agents, employees or other representatives.

NCBA and the NCBA Exhibits Management will cooperate fully but cannot assume responsibility for damage to Exhibitors' property or lost shipments, either coming into or going out of the premises, or for moving costs. Any damage due to inadequately packed property is Exhibitor's own responsibility. If Exhibit fails to arrive, Exhibitor will nevertheless be responsible for booth rent and no refund will be made. Exhibitors should carry insurance against such risks. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to maintain proper insurance coverage for its property and liability.
